

Devotional: An Eternal Perspective

Christian Devotion about living with integrity with an 'eternal perspective'

"...A false balance and unrighteous dealings are extremely offensive and shamefully sinful to the Lord, but a just weight is His delight..." - Proverbs 11:1 (AMPC)

When we cheat the system or have unrighteous dealings in business (or in any other area), it is sinful to the Lord. From an 'eternal perspective', what would we gain by getting more money from an unsuspecting person who is working hard to make ends meet? From an 'eternal perspective' what would be gained by cheating the system or bending the law a bit because we can get away with it? There are some things that the world may not see as very wrong. We may have an 'everybody does it' mentality to it.

But from God's perspective, is it wrong? Does it line up with biblical truth? Do we need to obey the law of the land even when we see a 'way around it'? As Christians, do we have a peace about it, or are we a little uncomfortable? We are called to be upright in every area—even in the grey areas. It can affect what God would do in our lives in the future.

Integrity in every area of our lives
