

Devotional: God's Unconditional Love

Christian Devotion about God's Love

"...For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things impending and threatening nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord..." - Romans 8:38-39 (AMPC)

We read here how nothing at all can separate us from the love of God: no demonic powers, nothing we fear or dread and nothing we say or do. There is nothing at all, in all of creation, that could separate us from God's love, or stop Him from loving us. It's much like how we are as parents. We love our children despite anything they may say or do. We may not like, or agree, with certain behaviour, but the child themselves we still love.

How much more so is it with God? His love for us is so much more than the love we have for our children.

God's love is unconditional love—Agape love!

No matter what you say or do
God's Agape love is there for you.
