

Devotional: Network Of Friends

Christian Devotion on Friendship

"...Confess to one another therefore your faults (your slips, your false steps, your offenses, your sins) and pray [also] for one another, that you may be healed and restored [to a spiritual tone of mind and heart]. The earnest (heartfelt, continued) prayer of a righteous man makes tremendous power available [dynamic in its working]..." - James 5:16 (AMPC)

Praying for each other has tremendous power—truly dynamic in its working. As we share our needs with each other, we can bring them to the Lord, and He will bring the healing, restoration and intervention needed. Another good thing about sharing our needs with each other is that others may have experienced the same thing and, therefore, can give the support and understanding that is needed.

Having a network of friends around you, praying for anything that comes up, is such a powerful thing. It can bring comfort and support to the one in need. We need to continue to bring each need that arises before the Lord.

Tremendous power is available from our Lord
As we pray with hearts in one accord.
