

Devotional: Trust!

Children's Devotion on Trust

Read: Psalm 37:1-8 (NKJV)

We read in this Psalm that those who are doing evil things seem to be prospering. But we are not to get angry or upset about that because God will have the last word and He will judge. We are told here to trust in the Lord.

No matter what is happening around us, God desires us to trust in Him. Things can look real bad for a while—but God will come through.

As we commit our way to the Lord and delight in Him, He will bring it to pass. He will give us the desires of our hearts.

We need to be still and rest in the Lord, to wait on Him and to keep on trusting Him. God will never let you down. He is fully trustworthy. So often people can let us down—but God never will.

If there are things in your life today that are tearing you up inside, give it over to God completely and place your hope and trust in Him.

Lean on, trust in, and be confident in the Lord with all your heart and mind and do not rely on your own insight or understanding. - Proverbs 3:5 (AMPC)

Lord, I give you my concerns,
I lay them at your feet
Help me, Lord, to trust in you
For my daily needs.
