

Devotional: When Impossibilities Become Possibilities

Christian Devotion about Our Impossibilities being God's Possibilities

Read: Matthew 19:23-26 (NKJV)

No matter how impossible we see the situation we're in, or how hopeless and difficult the road ahead seems to be, it's not that way for our Lord. God sees what we don't see, and He works the whole thing out and brings us through. God sees possibilities in our impossibilities—for with God nothing is impossible.

I guess God allows times of difficulty to slip into our lives to "grow us". Our faith is stretched to expand more. It often seems hard for us to completely trust Him when our world is crashing in around us, but we need to learn to. We need to learn to take our eyes off the circumstances and look to Jesus. There comes a quiet calmness when we focus on Jesus.

God is the God of the impossible. Look at the parting of Red Sea, the fiery furnace of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, the raising of Lazarus and all the other miracles recorded in the Bible. If He could do all of this, He can certainly handle our moment of frantic hysteria. So today, if you are facing what seems to you an impossible situation, give it over to the Lord, and trust Him to see you through it.

For with God nothing will be impossible. - Luke 1:37(NKJV)

But He said, What is impossible with men is possible with God. - Luke 18:27(AMPC)

*Alas, Lord God! Behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm! There is nothing too hard or too wonderful for You.
- Jeremiah 32:17(AMPC)*

Lord, I pray you'll help me see
That you are in control
And that you'll handle the impossible,
Bringing calmness to my soul.
