

The Beauty Of Your Creation

Lord, I marvel at your creation,
Such beauty to behold,
For you can be seen in all you've made
And in each regenerate soul

For you are truly magnificent,
And I stand back in awe
At each small, but significant detail
Of your created works, O Lord

For the beauty your creation unveils,
Keeps me truly amazed,
But so much more than all of this,
It is you, Lord, who I praise.
