

Christian Communion Poem: Communion

Click on poem to listen to it.

Communion

I gave you life
Through giving of myself,
My broken body
And my blood poured out

So take and eat
And have my life within
Remember that I
Have forgiven all your sins

So as you remember
All that I did for you,
My death on the cross
And all the beatings too

But more than that
I rose from the dead
And won the victory
Over Satan and of death

In your union with me,
Even though you may die,
You can know my victory
And have eternal life

But until that time,
Come often to my table,
Eat and drink of me,
For I am truly able

To conquer evil
That war against the Lord,
For I shall deliver
Those that I have called

And give unto you
The peace I only give,
So you may be led
And begin to really live.

© By M.S.Lowndes

Christian Easter Poems

Devotional: What is Communion?

By using this poem, you signify that you have read & agreed to my 'Terms Of Use'.
<https://www.heavensinspirations.com/terms-of-use.html>