

Christian Poem: Here I Am Knocking

Christian poem based on Revelation 3:20, of Jesus standing at the door of our hearts - knocking

Here I Am Knocking

Here I am standing
At the door of your heart,
Won't you let me come in
And flood light where there's dark?

For I have been knocking
For such a long time,
Don't leave it much longer
To become a child of mine

I just want you to know
That I love you so much
And can fill your heart within
That once was starved of love

So please don't delay
In responding to me
As I stand outside knocking,
For I have not a key

I will never force you
To open the door,
It's all up to you, my friend,
To receive me as Lord.
