

Christian Poem: Lord, I Need To Know

Christian Poem on the reassurance of God's providence

Lord, I Need To Know

Lord, I need to know for sure
That you're still in control
I need to know your steadfast love
And your peace within my soul

For I don't know where to turn
And I feel so lost inside
I need to know you're still with me
A refuge where I can hide

Lord, I pray that you will come
And touch me once again
The turmoil deep within my soul,
I pray that you will mend

But even in this, I will praise
Your holy name once more
And truly be surrendered to
My saviour and my Lord.
