

Christian Scripture Poem: Proverbs 17:3

Scripture Poem Based on Proverbs 17 verse 3 from the Bible

Proverbs 17:3

As silver needs refining
And as the furnace is for gold,
To melt away all impurities
Like God's work within our souls

To leave behind what's pure
And rid us of what's not
This is the testing of the heart,
The purifying hand of God

Life's trials often come to us
In the furnace of hard times,
But we must only trust in God
As we are being refined.
