

Christian Poem: Release Me

Christian Poem on Deliverance

Click on poem to listen to it.

Release Me

Why is my heart deeply troubled
With feelings of sadness and grief?
Though my life seems to be without
Real turmoil and pressing needs

Yet I feel so grieved inside
With feelings of giving up,
A sense of real hopelessness
Has crowded out God's love

Release me, Lord, I ask of thee,
I don't want to stay this way
Fill me again with your Holy Spirit
And deliver me, I pray

May I again be filled with joy
And know your loving grace
May the spirit of heaviness over me
Be replaced with the garment of praise

I shall arise and sing your praises
And lift my hands to you
And declare aloud your faithfulness
In the wondrous works you do

Be gone you father of iniquities,
You no longer have a hold,
For greater is He that is in me,
The redeemer of my soul

I will not give in to Satan's attacks,
Nor allow him the chance to bind,
For Christ has already set me free
And released my troubled mind

My hope shall always be in God,
In Him alone will I trust,
His joy again will flood my soul
And my heart will be filled with love.

© By M.S.Lowndes

Devotionals: Take Every Thought Captive | The Armour Of God

By using this poem, you signify that you have read & agreed to my 'Terms Of Use'.
<https://www.heavensinspirations.com/terms-of-use.html>