

Christian Poem: Soaring High, Soaring Free

Christian Poem relating to rising above our circumstances

Soaring High, Soaring Free

Flying high on the wings of eagles
Is where God wants us to be,
Soaring above the clouds of darkness
That cloak our misery

He wants us to rise above our problems
To see it from His perspective,
For then it doesn't look quite as bad
Than what we thought or expected

God doesn't want us to peck on the ground,
Nor wallow in the mire and mud
With our heads continually looking down,
Never thinking to look above

He wants us to be living victorious,
Overcoming the enemy,
To live an abundant, fulfilling life,
Soaring high and soaring free.
