

Christian Poem: Step Out

Christian Poem relating to stepping out in faith

Step Out

Sometimes we feel we're not moving
And feel that we're in limbo
We ask the Lord which way to turn
And where He wants us to go

We wrestle with uncertain feelings,
Afraid to take that step
We're scared we may be rejected,
So do nothing but anxiously fret

We want so much to move on
With what God wants us to do,
But we need to step out of the boat
And walk on the water too

For it's only when we do this
That God can work through us,
Bringing about the change within
As we place in Him our trust.
