

Christian Prayer Poem: Break Down the Walls

Christian Prayer Poem about the walls around our hearts

Break Down The Walls

Lord,
Break down the walls
I have built around my life
Brick by brick, let them fall
Let the light of your truth
Shine through,
Revealing you more

And as you break down the walls
That surround my heart
Exposing me to the light
Of your restoring love,
Peirce my heart
My soul, with your love

Bring me out into the light
The light of your truth
And the warmth of your love
Let me be fully immersed
In your light
The warmth of your light
Let it melt away the coldness
That has wrapped around
My heart and soul

And let the light of your truth
Completely liberate me,
Bringing peace,
Releasing hope
And reviving love.
